

Program on Refugees, Forced Displacement, and Humanitarian Responses

FILM SERIES

WEDNESDAY FEBRUARY 8

A World Not Ours

A passionate, bittersweet account of one Palestinian family's multi-generational experience living as permanent refugees in Lebanon. (Mahdi Fleifel, Autobiographical Documentary, 93 mins)

WEDNESDAY MARCH 1

Triage

Nobel Laureate and former president of MSF Dr. James Orbinski travels back to Africa where he spent years as a field doctor, during the Somali famine and the Rwandan genocide, reflecting on the moral dilemmas of humanitarian aid in conflict situations. (Patrick Reed, Documentary, 90 mins)

WEDNESDAY APRIL 19

In this World

Young Jamal and his older cousin Enayat embark on a runaway journey from a Pakistani refugee camp to the promise of a better life in the UK. (Michael Winterbottom, Docudrama, 90 mins)

6:00pm • Luce Hall Auditorium • 34 Hillhouse Avenue

Light dinner served before the screening

Sponsored by the Program on Refugees, Forced Displacement, and Humanitarian Responses at the MacMillan Center. refugee.macmillan.yale.edu